EITC Income Guidelines:

The Educational Improvement Tax Credit Program is closely regulated by State legislation. Per State law, the following guidelines should be used to determine what should be included as "Income."

In calculating household income for the purpose of determining student eligibility, all moneys and property received by all household members of whatever nature and from whatever source are to be included, except for the following:

- a) Periodic payments for sickness and disability other than regular wages received during a period of sickness or disability.
- b) Disability, retirement or other payments arising under workers' compensation acts, occupational disease acts, and similar legislation by any government.
- c) Payments commonly recognized as old age or retirement benefits paid to persons retired from a service after reaching a specific age or after a stated period of employment.
- d) Payments commonly known as public assistance or unemployment compensation benefits by a governmental agency.
- e) Payments to reimburse actual expenses.
- f) Payments made by employers or labor unions for programs covering hospitalization, sickness, disability or death, supplemental unemployment benefits, strike benefits, social security and retirement.
- g) Compensation received by United States service personnel serving in a combat zone.
